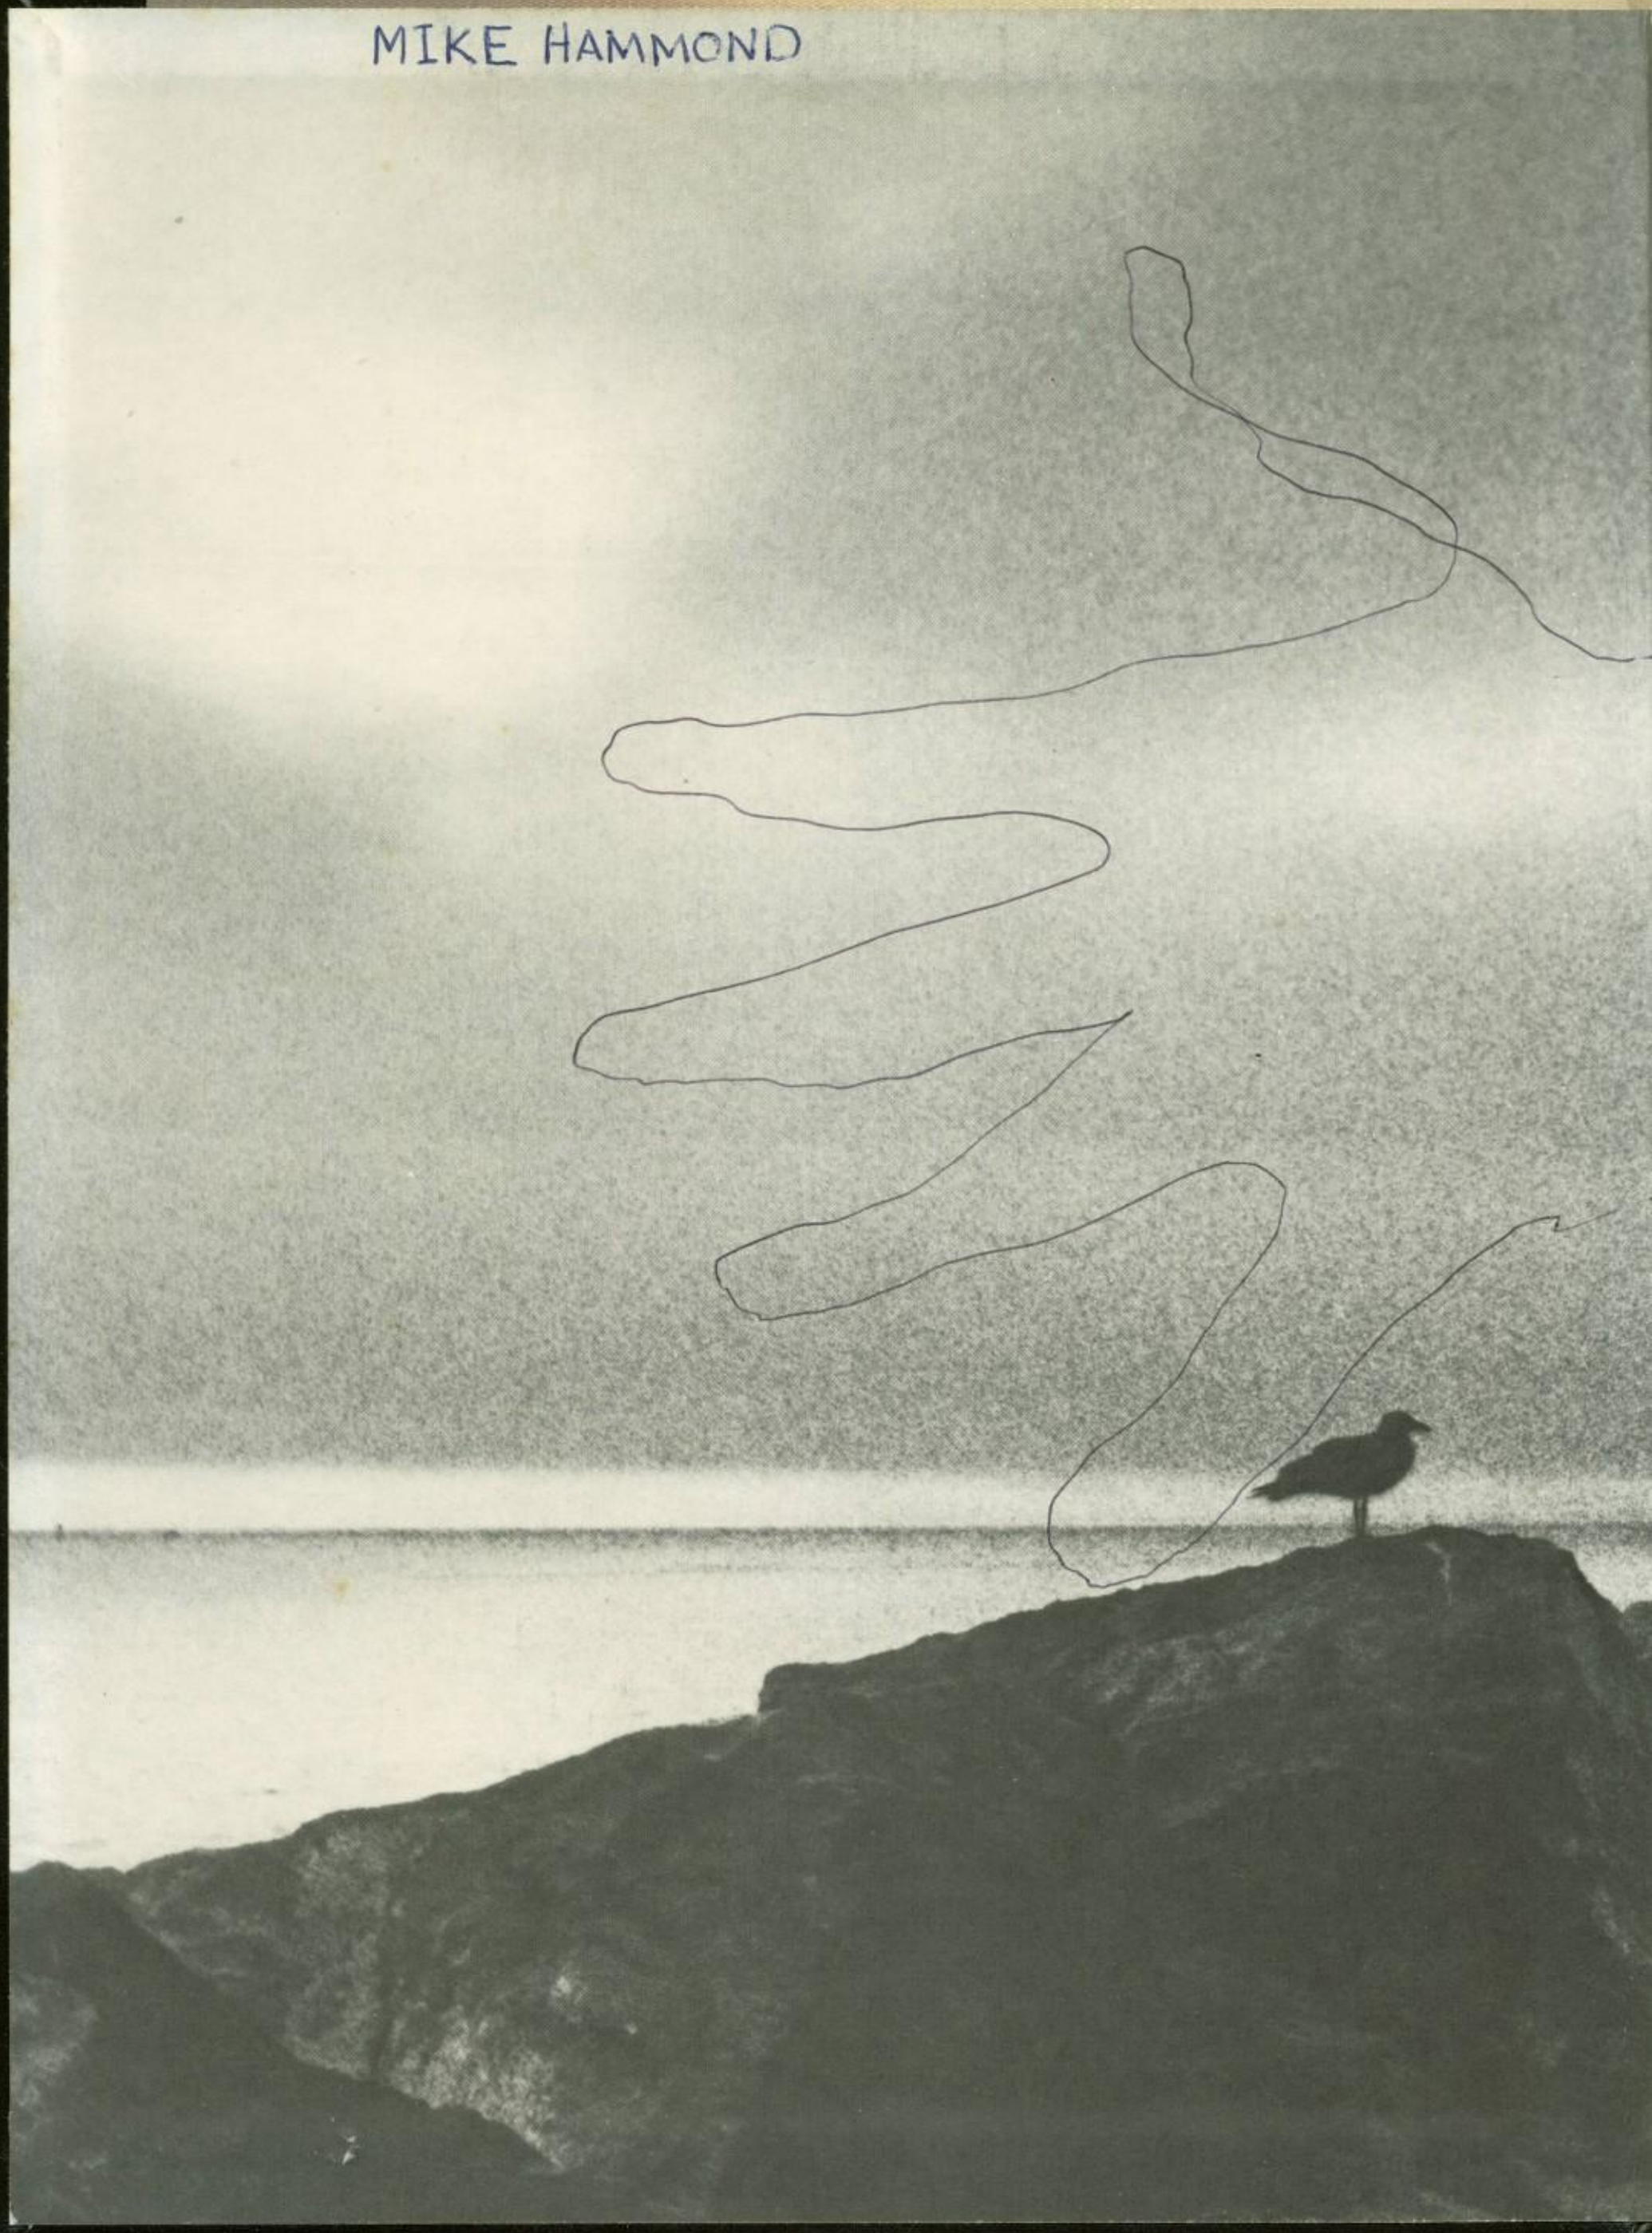
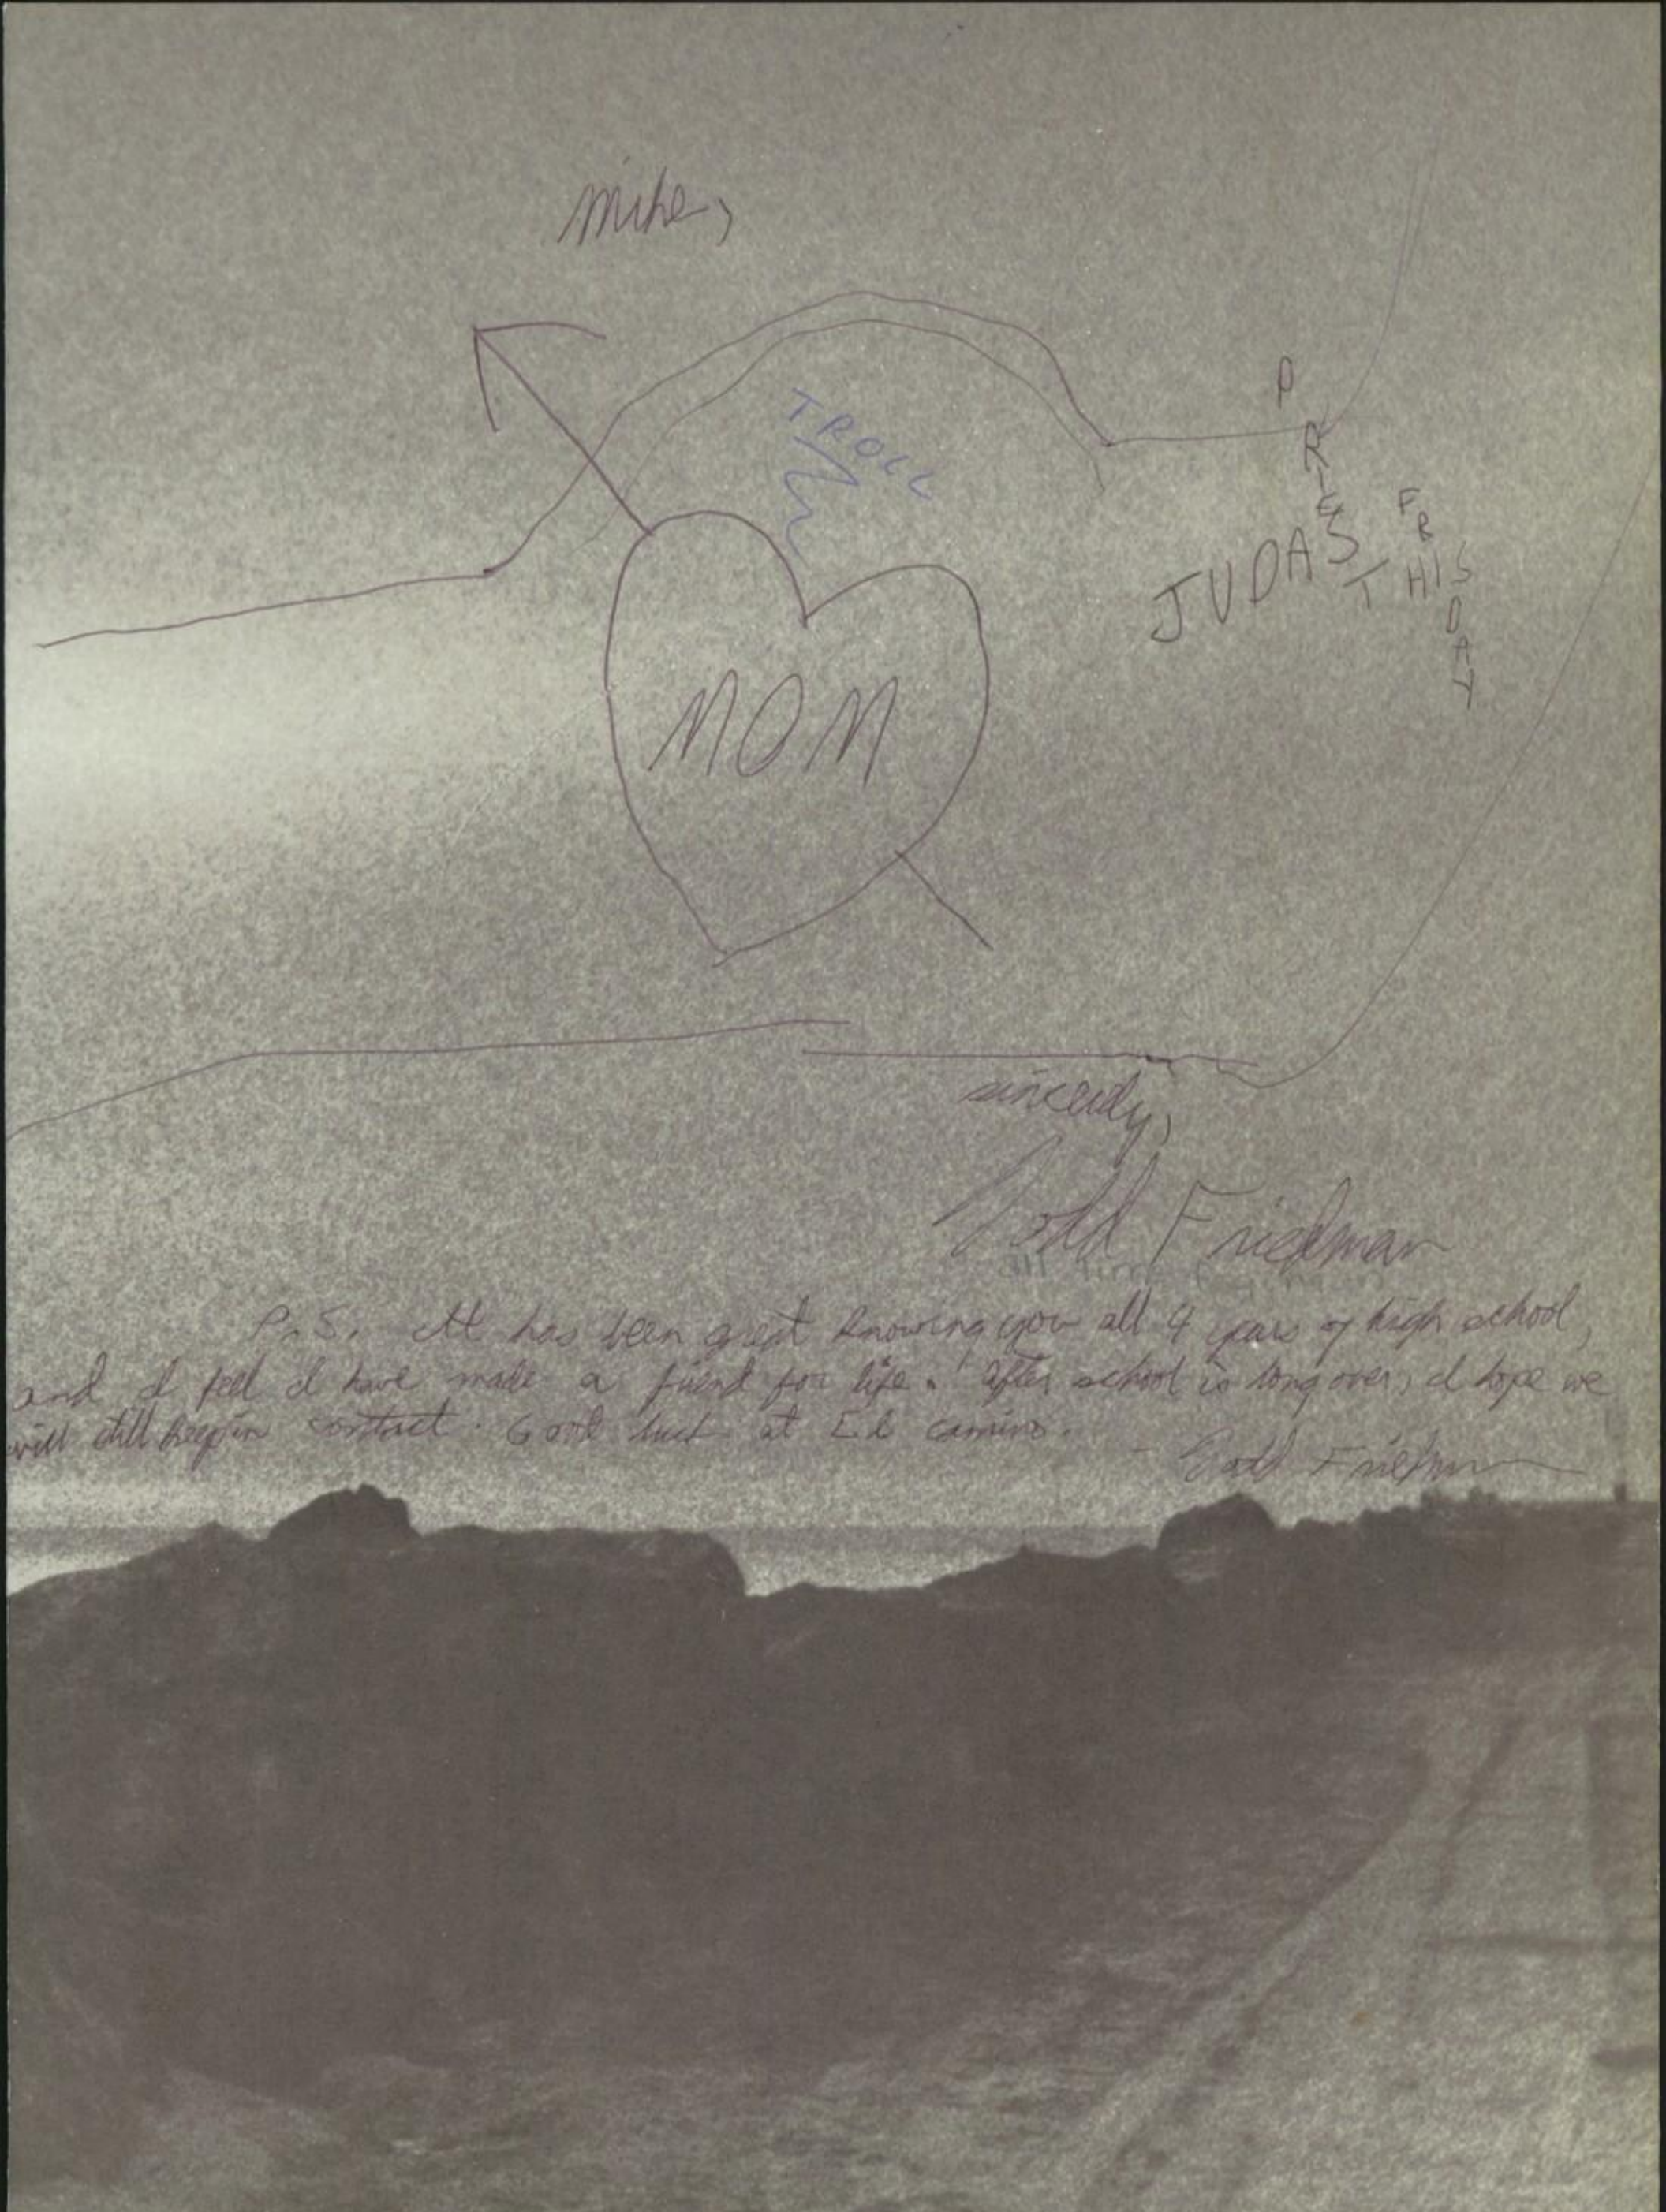
MIKE HAMMOND





sincerely,

Todd Friedman

P.S. It has been great knowing you all 4 years of high school, and I feel I have made a friend for life. After school is long over, I hope we will still keep in contact. Good luck at EL Camino.

doing it and I hope you did also. We will have a few more wars before the end of the summer when everyone goes away. Have a great summer and a great life. Remember the good times.

Board copes with closing of schools

Still attempting to cope with Proposition 13, the School Board and District Administration kept the 1980 school year afloat.

Problems such as declining enrollment, closing of schools, "pay as you play" sports programs, and reduced course loads challenged the School Board members and District Administration.

Despite having to deal with irate parents over the issue of the closing of the schools, the School Board performed their duties successfully. Headed by President Ann Hinchliffe, the School Board managed to placate the parents and effectively run the schools.

Palos Verdes School Administration faces trying year

Principal Nancy Detjen's second year as principal of Palos Verdes High School was successful despite several changes in the academic format.

In the aftermath of Proposition 13, juniors and seniors dropped their Physical Education classes, fewer teachers were hired, and students were forced to pay for their sports activities.

The shortage of money did not damage the school spirit, however, due to the excellent work of Principal Nancy Detjen, Dean of Students Rosemary Claire, Assistant Principals Daniel Boone and Richard Reese, and Director of Activities James Kinney.

Secretaries keep the school going

The administrative staff worked well and efficiently under budget changes this year. The changes caused a shortage of paper and other materials important to the office workers. Even without the materials, the staffs managed to run their work smoothly.

Counselors carry on efficiently

Even with the transfer of Joe Cunningham from the counseling staff, the counselors were able to carry on as efficiently as ever.

Despite the heavier work load, counselors were able to assist all students who needed help in their placement and with competency tests.

Maintenance staff cleans up school

The janitorial staff had to endure many cutbacks this year. The staff had to cut back on janitors and groundsmen and equipment. Teachers and students had to clean up after themselves for the first time.

The cafeteria staff also had to endure cutbacks due to Proposition 13. A shortage of student workers, due to the new schedules, caused the cafeteria staff to close the cafeteria during the second and third periods.

Bilinguals say it all twice

Language is everything: stories, songs, and religion. Students enrolled in the foreign language program at Palos Verdes gained knowledge in these fields and also expanded their talents by learning to speak, to listen, to use grammar, and to understand the cultures of other countries. Students also enhanced their abilities as bilinguals. This technique helped them relate to other lifestyles.

Scientific students work hard in labs

PV students had many science courses from which to choose. Some of the more popular classes were Biology I, Chemistry I, Physical Lab Science, and Physics. Special interest science classes were Marine Science and Earth Science.

Shirley Beym was once again science department chairman. Because of further budget cutbacks to her department, Madelyn Bilkey taught two classes of Physical Lab Science.

Lack of funds again hurt the math department this year. One teacher was layed off while another was hired to teach both Math and English. Jill Thompson, the new teacher taught Algebra I and College Prep I as well as some English Courses.

Calculus, the most advanced course offered at PV, was altered this year to include more top track students. Calculus was split into two classes. One of these classes worked faster and toward college credit whereas the other class stressed complete understanding at a slower pace.

Work Experience helped students

Career decisions have always been difficult for students to make; however, with help from the Business Department and the Career Center, the choices were more easily made by students. Work Experience Coordinator, Johann Ulrich, helped students get jobs and earn credits through her program.

Business Department chairman, Richard Hazeltine, felt that his classes were more fun this year than in any of his previous years at Palos Verdes.

New district cuts trimmed the physical education staff

Madelyn Bilkey

After losing three teachers from last year's physical education staff, this year's staff showed a great performance. Freshman and sophomores were the only students required to take Physical Education.

The students enjoyed various sports including football, water polo, tennis, raquetball, soccer, gymnastics, and many others.

Many of the teachers were teaching other subjects as well as PE, such as history, science, and business.

Seniors party with shortened schedule

Regardless of the seniors'failure to win with their float "Demoat 'Em," they worked hard and had a lot of fun. Homecoming Week, with the theme "Knights in White Satin," proved to be fun-filled and was topped off by a great formal.

Contributing greatly to the activities of the seniors was the shortened schedule. Losing a period allowed more time to devote to extracurricular activities.

The year ended in excitement with the Junior-Senior Prom, a dance all will remember. Following tradition, the seniors jammed Ditch Day, graduation, and Grad Night all into the same week leaving the last memories of PV as fond ones.

The Thrust hath come !!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Infamous disco-punk group the Thrust generously agreed to perform a free lunchtime concert. Unfortunately, the band showed up on a Saturday and played to an enraptured crowd of two janitors, five joggers and three stray dogs. From left: Vietmanese punk-rocker and burglar Nie Lon Head, formerly of the psychedelic '60s group Twilight's Own, on keyboard; Dr. Arthur Peadic, formerly of Thom Mc Ann Shoes in Trona, California, on rhythm shoehorn; Ernie Umlaut, who has since left the Thrust to form muzak group Ernie and the Dreamers, on ukelele and lip sync; Butch Machom, ex-head of the Monkees Fan Club, on drums and John Travolta and Elvis Costello imitations; and Rocky God, would-be heavy metal guitarist extraordinaire, on lead guitar and nice legs. The Thrust's latest album, "The Second Coming," was released on S&M Records in March.

With a great sense of confidence, Juniors preparing for college still had time for other more enjoyable things at Palos Verdes this year.

Pep rallies, plays, and popcorn filled several evenings, along with football games, basketball games, cross country meets, and other sporting events.

Once again, the class of '81 completed an award-winning year. After being awarded first place in the Homecoming float competition, the Juniors went on to organize a fantastic prom. The prom was the perfect culmination to an eventful year.

WINNING THE FLOAT competition for the second year in a row is the junior class.

Class of 1982's spirit and enthusiasm made its sophomore year a special one. From selling concessions at the Homecoming game to pulling off a great Soph Doll contest and dance, sophomores filled the year with exciting events and fun.

President Erin Stephenson and class officers showed good leadership in organizing sophomores for activities, especially in producing an excellent float entry for Homecoming. Most sophomores felt the class had a very active year.

Freshmen officers "break the ice"

Building floats, setting up carnival booths, and dancing at formals were just some of the new esoteric experiences freshmen participated in at their first year at Palos Verdes high school.

Bake sales, car washes, and the carnival booths provided the freshman class with funds to carry on many activities.

Stated president Jon Israel, "This was a great class. They had great spirit and much participation in all activites. They really came together as a unit to make the year a successful one.

ACTIVITIES

"Wonderful Town" was the hilarious summer show about two sisters from Ohio who went to New York to find their fortunes. Their first encounter was with Appopolous (Jaimie Roedel), the Greek landlord. Frank (Larry Thelen), their friendly neighbor soda jerk, and Bob Baker (Kevin Costello), the editor, were the love interests of the sisters. The story of the sisters' misadventures climaxed at the Village Vortex with its proprietor, Valenti (Todd Bracey).

Superb acting, singing, dancing, and directing on the part of all those involved made for a successful production.

" SO HE WALKS IN, and orders this banana split, "says Frank (Larry Thelen) to Ruth (Sousie Dia).

" DON'T WORRY, your story will be read and if it's good enough, we might publish it, "says Bob (Kevin Costello) to Ruth.

PTSA summer production turns out "wonderfully"

" 'CAUSE I COULD PASS THE FOOTBALL, " Wreck(Mark Ferrara) says to his fans.

" STEP UP, STEP UP, "says Ruth to the villagers gathered around her.

"WE'RE REALLY COOKIN' NOW," remarks Terry Colen to Lisa Weinstein.

Twisters make sparks fly at school

Throughout the year, many of the Friday nights were spent dancing the night away. With music provided by The Brothers O'Brien, Entourage, and other great bands, the dances were great fun.

The Twisters came back to Palos Verdes under popular demand. The Twisters went through another smash performance in the gym. The dances were thoroughly enjoyed by the student body.

"SMILE," SAYS DAVE CULLER to his friend Diane Pierno, as the cameraman shows up again.

Leadership Camp proves a success

Leadership Camp proved to be another successful trip this year. Much was discussed over the long hours at the peaceful resort.

At the end of the weekend, much was found accomplished. The assembly split into six groups in which they decided on Homecoming events, creative thought day speakers, and lunchtime activities.

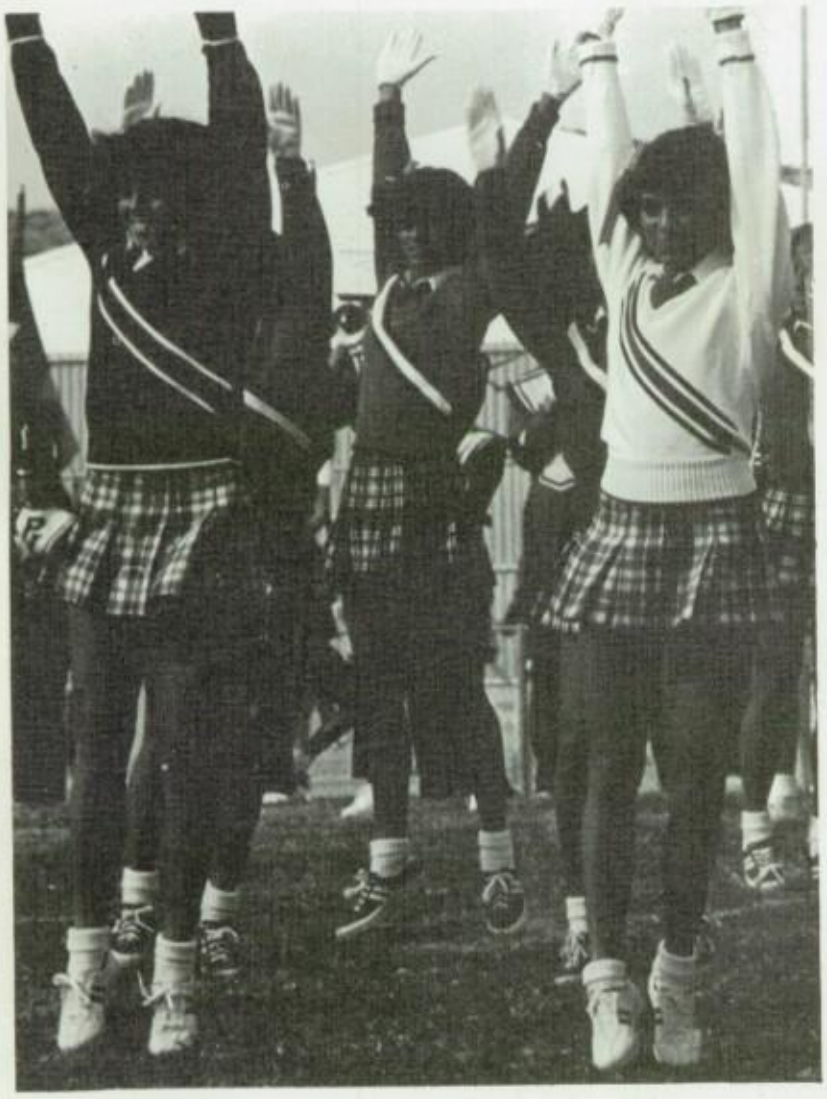
Principal Nancy Detjen and Activities Director James Kinney were very satisfied with the assembly's decisions.

LOOKING VERY ENTHUSIASTIC, students plan homecoming events.

GATHERING OUTSIDE IN THE BRISK AIR, students discuss future plans for PV.

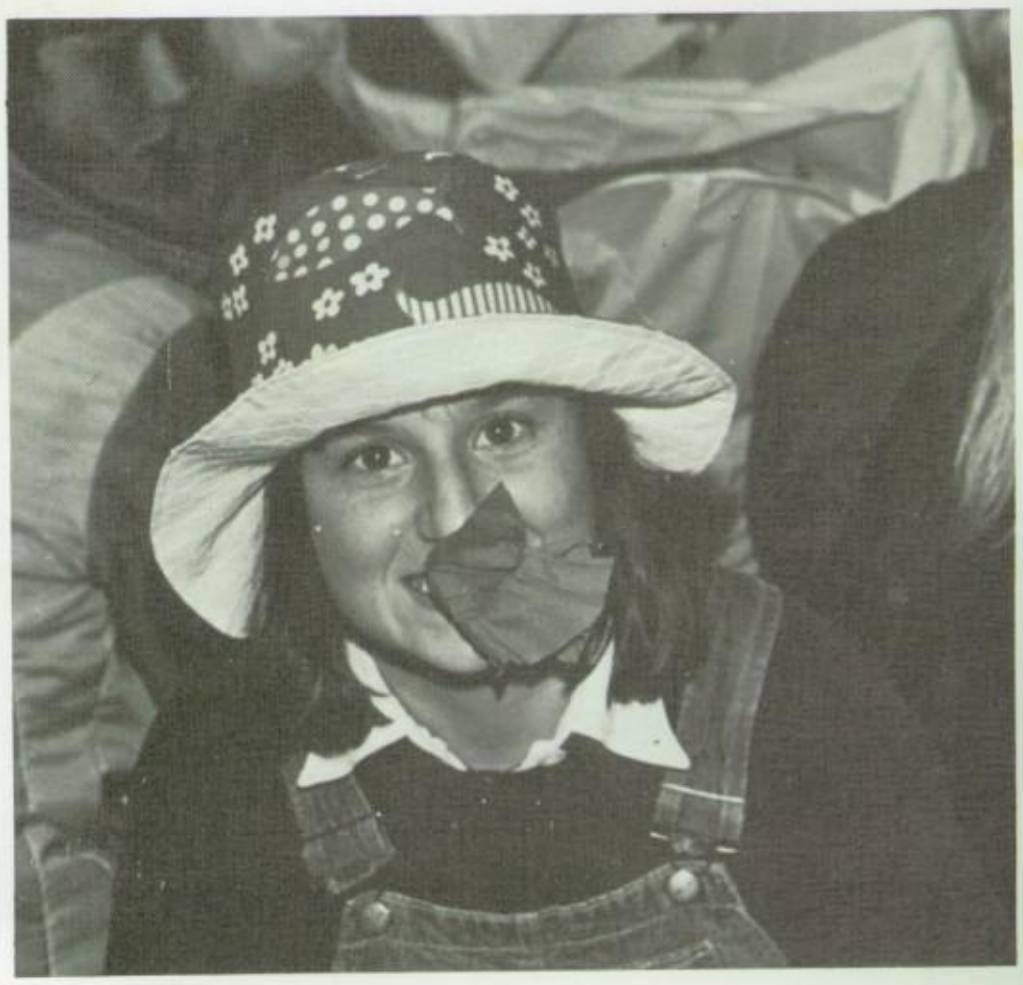
Homecoming week was filled with fun and a lot of student body participation. There was a great deal of competition between the four classes competing against each other in various events, such as an archery contest, grogging and grueling, and pyramid building.

The football game was a success with PV defeating Santa Monica 42-0. At half time, the princesses and floats were paraded. Class of '81 took first place once again with the float "Lance-A-Lot."



PERFORMING IN ONE of the drill team's famous half-time shows are Kathy Morris and Captain Lori Duperon.

POSING FOR HER CANDID SHOT, Ann Grady parties it up with some friends.



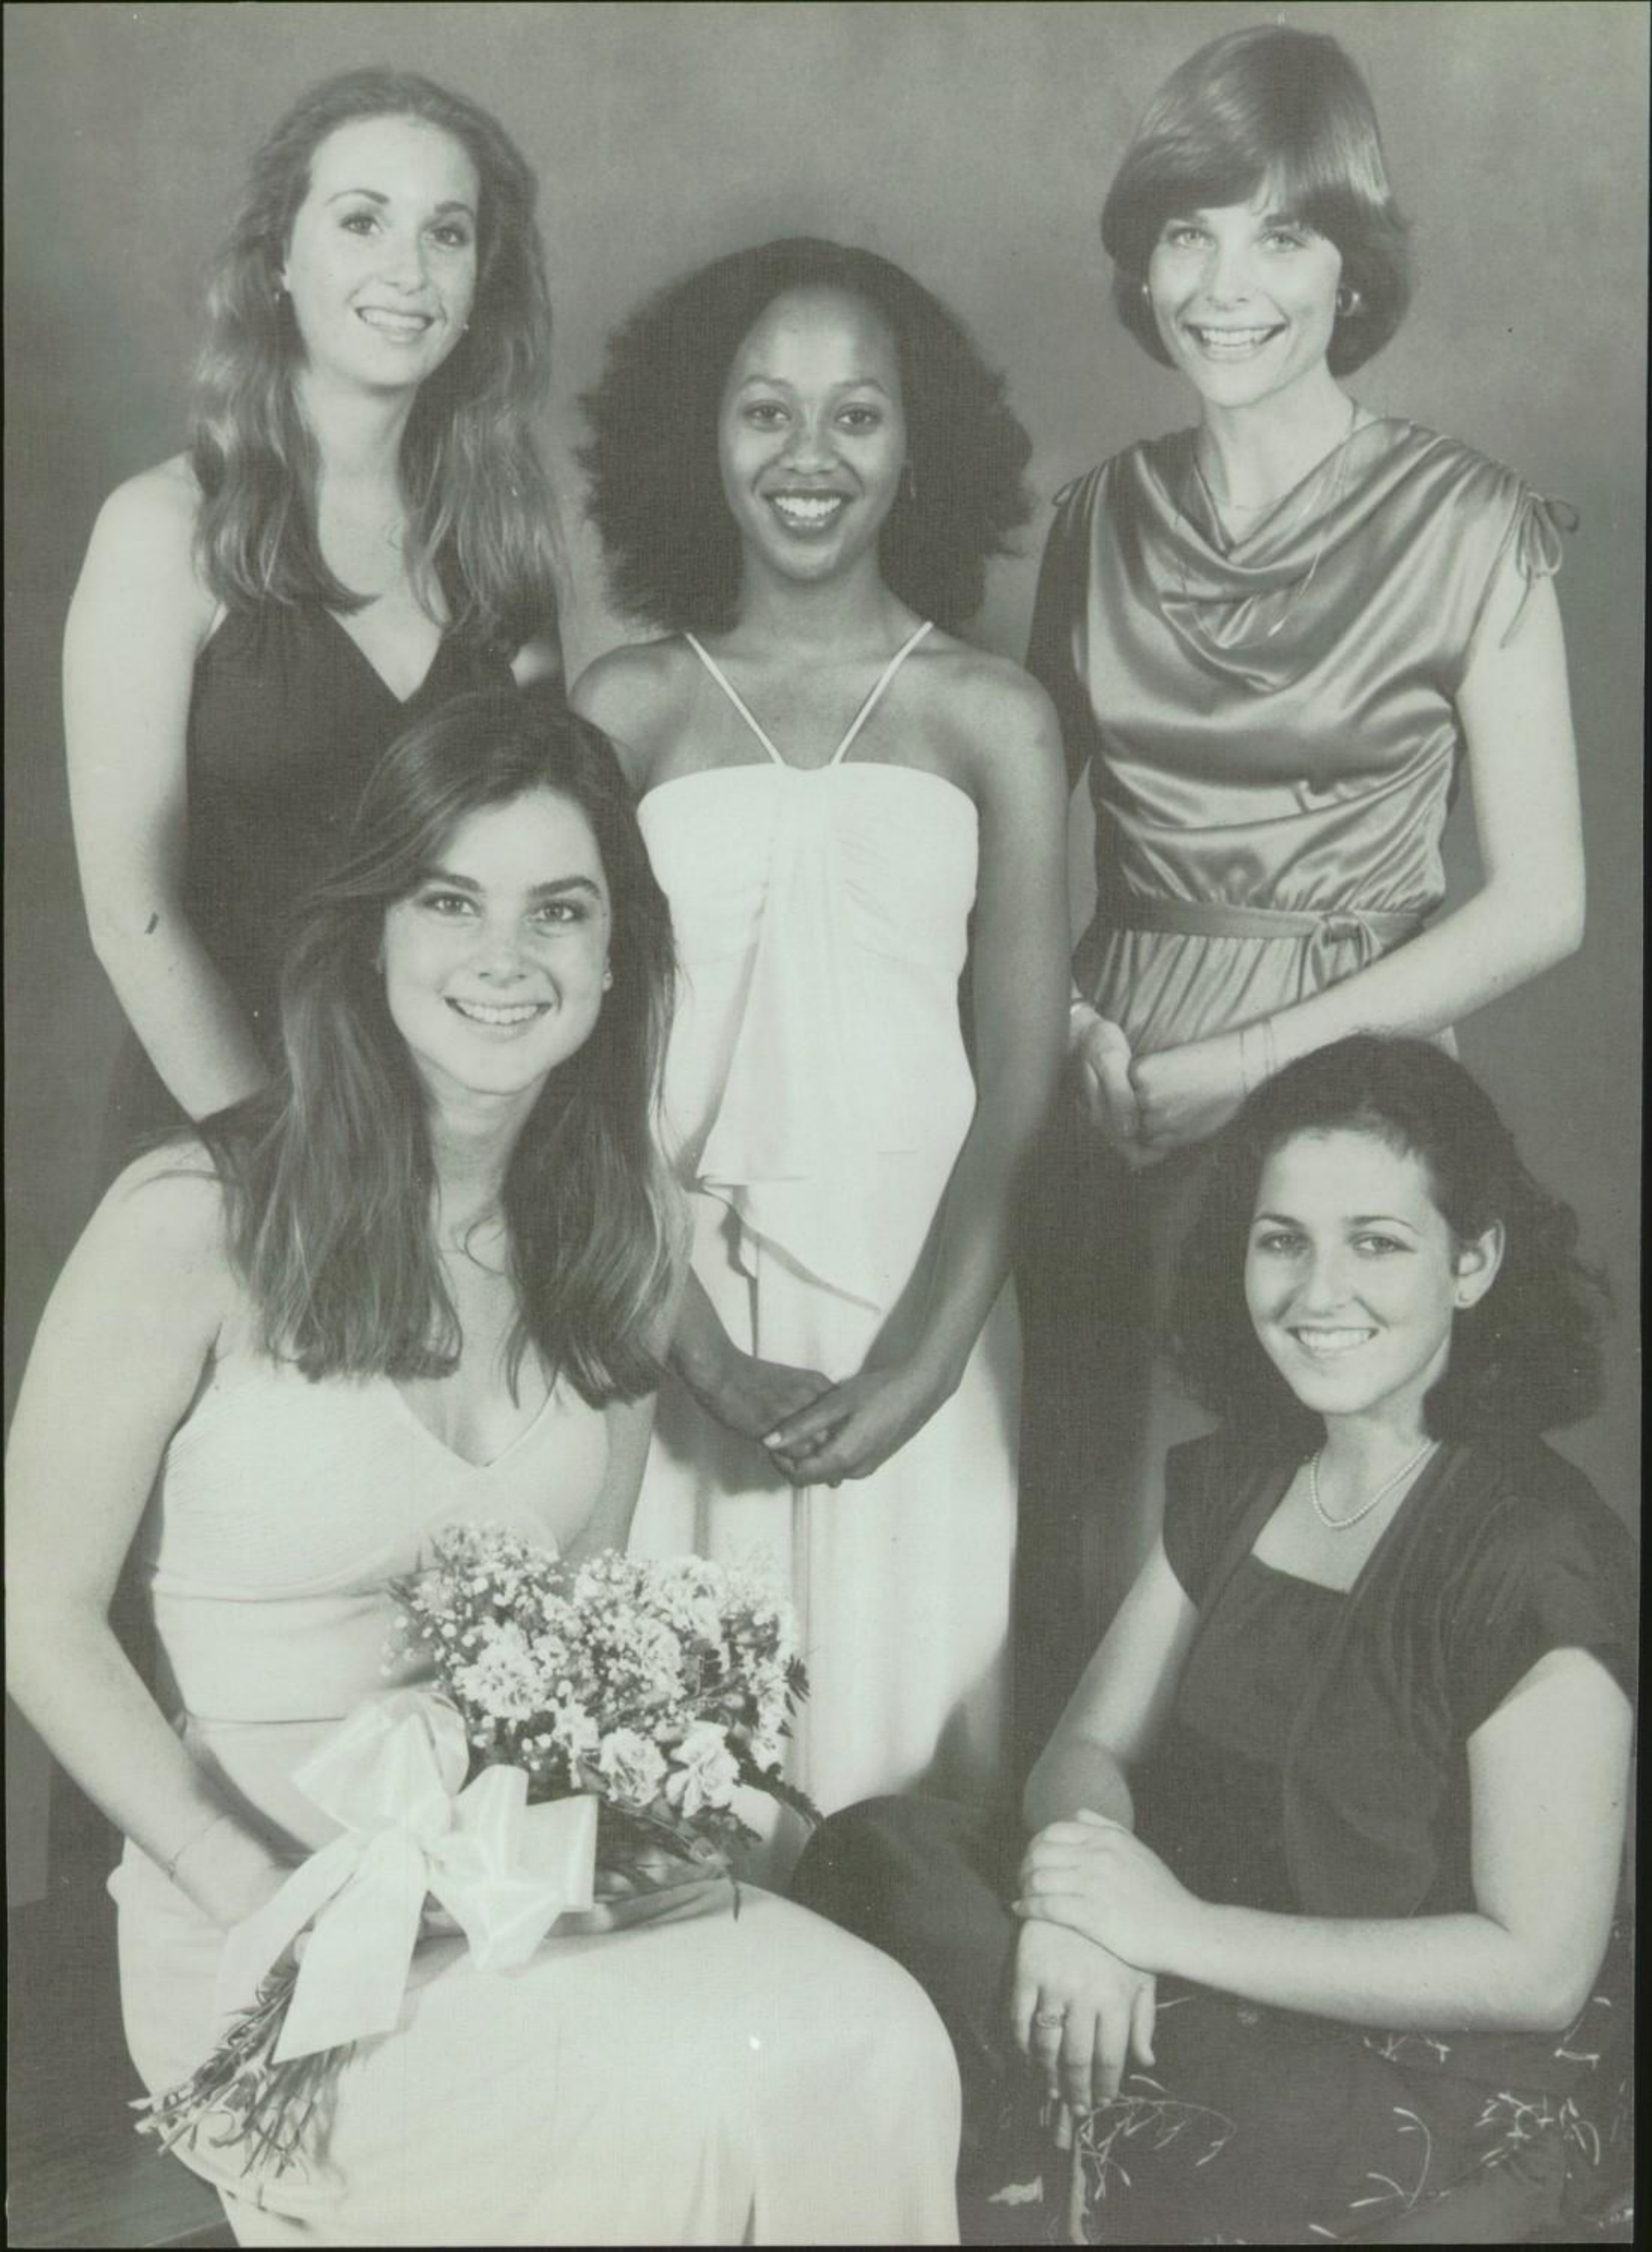
"ANYONE FOR A TANGO?" inquires a desperate Jenny Weber at float-building.

Students have fun during Homecoming

WITH MUCH PRIDE, Mr. Armstrong escorts his daughter through an honor guard of the banner unit.

STUDENTS CHEER for PV to win the big football game against Santa Monica.

THE MOST HILARIOUS addition to the parade was the coming of the Thrust.



Dancers enjoy Medieval theme in Homecoming tent

"Knights in White Satin" was the theme of the annual Homecoming Formal. For something new, the ASB rented a huge tent and covered the faculty parking lot.

Homecoming Queen, Laura Armstrong, had been crowned at the all school pep rally. She and the princesses, Anita Arminio, Ann Grady, Gayle Marshall, and Kelly Mills, reigned over the 1979 formal.

Those who attended enjoyed the band and the unlimited dancing. The refreshments provided by service clubs were delicious, and the Medieval theme provided an excellent atmosphere for the Homecoming Formal.

UARDED BY AN ANONYMOUS KNIGHT, Kathy Hoy and Will Snow, broughly enjoy the highlight of their week of "Knights and Days".

"IT'S NOT against school rules!" say lovely couple John Moloney and Mike Morris.

"Job" subjected to another performance

What sort of ordeal do you go through if God decides to test your faith in Him? Neil Simon's play, "God's Favorite," answers this question, and Drama III's interpretation made for a hilarious fall show.

Heading their respective casts were Mike Johnson and Jaimie Roedel as Joe Benjamin. Joe's faith in God was to be tested by a series of major personal disasters. The message was delivered to him by God's zany messenger, Larry Thelen. Claudia Weitsman, Jenny Scott, and other members of Drama III rounded out the cast.

Chip Hipkins, Ron Roush, and the sound and lighting crews did an excellent job of producing the show.

"DO I LOOK LIKE a burglar to you?" asks Rose (Claudia Weitsman) her husband, Joe (Mike Johnson) and children.

THE 'BIG G' STANDS for God. I'm His messenger," explains Larry Thelen to Joe (Jaimie Roedel).

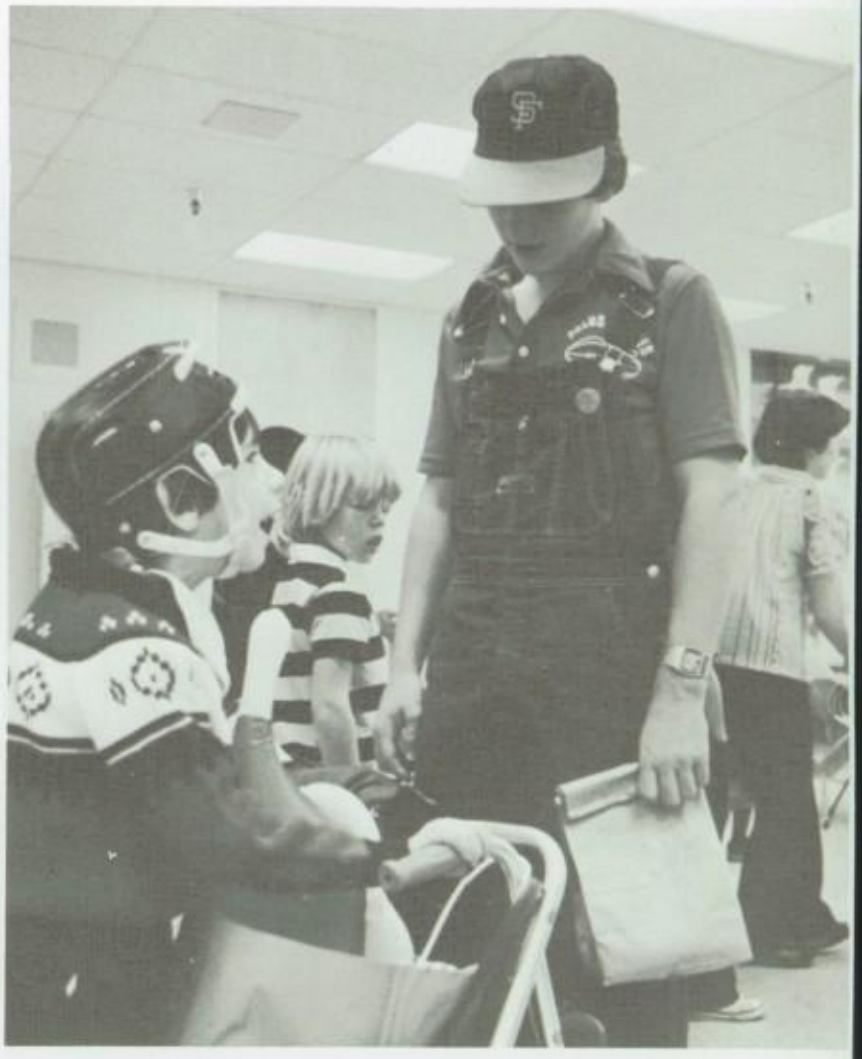
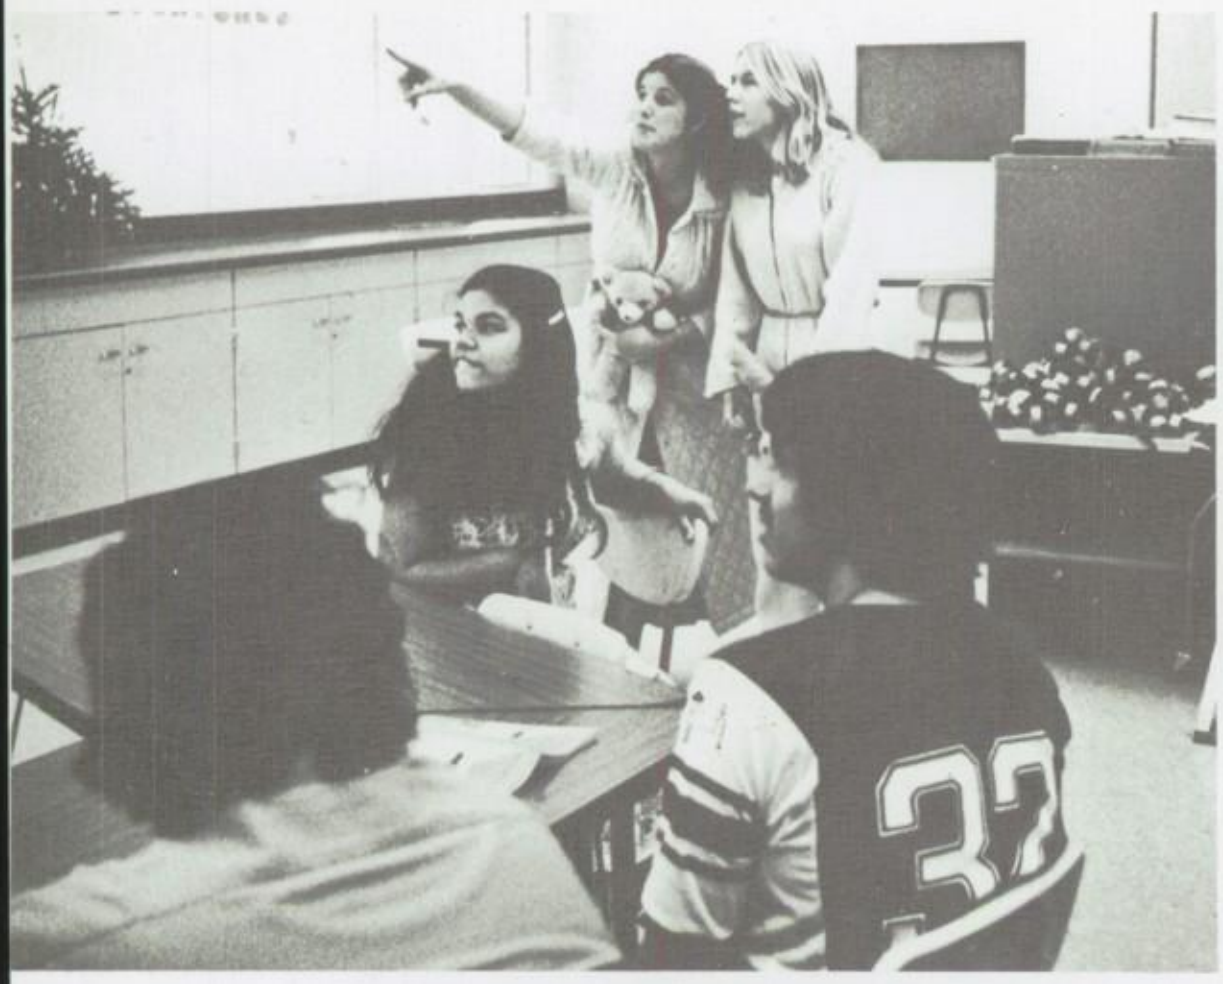
Doing a repeat performance, PV goes to Harlan Shoemaker

STRIKING UP A CONVERSATION with the children is easy for Kim Schuler.



"WANT A BIT OF LUNCH?" says Farmer Jim Halkett to a young student.

WITH A LOOK OF HAPPINESS, the little boy from Harlan Shoemaker receives toys from Santa Claus.



"LOOK, DO YOU SEE WHAT I SEE?" Michelle Giese asks Rachel Brinkman in a skit they performed for the children at Harlan Shoemaker.

Harlan Shoemaker's annual trip at Christmas was once again successful. The handicapped children at the school enjoyed the skits, songs, and dances presented to them by selected Palos Verdes students. Afterwards, the children had a chance to eat cookies and drink punch before receiving gifts from Santa Claus.

It was evident that the Palos Verdes performers had as good a time as the children who watched.

USING A CANDY CANE to cheer up a Harlan Shoemaker student, Cheryl Range expresses her Christmas joy.

Faculty wins by tremendous margin

PULLING FOR HIS TEAM, Mike Egan attempts to stretch the students' faltering score in the face of stubborn resistance.

BANZAI! shrieks student Ed Hong as he is forced off his mule by faculty member Joe Kelly.

WITH THE EXPERT TOUCH that only years of teaching French give Peter "Rabbit Ears" Fawaz astounds student Bob Song and Coach C Eberhard alike.

RECEIVING STARES FROM ONLOOKERS, Anita Arminio plays a 'Jerk'.

Once again the faculty defeated the students in the annual donkey basketball game. As usual it was a huge success.

A score of 36-26 left the students disappointed. With six points, Mark Halikis was the most outstanding student. Scoring was balanced out by the other players. Gil Eberhard and Peter Fawaz were top players for the faculty team.

Costumes ranged from Charlie's Angels and Dolly Parton to clownes and a giant blue bunny. The game was as much fun to watch as it was to play, and a great time was had by all.

WITH A LOOK OF COLD CALCULATION on his face, math teacher James Ryono peers over his mule while assessing his chances of scoring.

HIS VULNERABLE SPOT EXPOSED, English teacher Joe Kelly goes for broke in an attempt to stop Kirk Rallis from scoring.

Drama II and Drama III presented Storybook Theatre, under the direction of Chip Hipkins. Students performed some original roles ranging from animal to comic book heroes. Not only was it fun to watch but the actors enjoyed putting it on for the children. The production consisted of several plays specially selected for the youthful audience.

Hundreds of kindergarten and elementary school students enjoyed the excitement of breaking away from reality and being taken into the world of fantasy for a delightful hour of fun.

Battling windmills seems to be an integral part of being a knight in search of the "Impossible Dream." Man of La Mancha tells the story of one such knight, Don Quixote. The telling of this story was the source of the spring musical.

Playing the part of the "Knight of the Woeful Countenance," Don Quixote, was Kevin Costello. Sancho, his squire and faithful friend, was hilariously portrayed by Doug Kaback. Together, they traveled far and wide to kill dragons, rescue princesses, and make the world a better place. It was on one of these quests that Quixote met Aldonza (Alisa Endsley), a whore, and in his delusions saw her as the girl of his dreams, Dulcinea. His attempts to win her over and his demise at the end made for a powerfully touching show. Chip Hipkins and the entire cast did a fantastic job in pulling off one of the best shows PV had ever seen.

"YOUR GRACE, IT'S A WINDMILL," exclaims Sancho (Doug Kaback) as Don Quixote (Kevin Costello) prepares himself to go into battle.

"WHY DOES HE DO THE THINGS HE DOES?" asks Aldonza (Alisa Endsley) while the horses listen sympathetically.

Sophs doll it up for fund-raising

Once again, sophomores were motivated to raise money for their class by way of Soph Doll activities. Throughout Soph Doll week, numerous sophmore boys went around carrying buckets to collect donations for their "doll".

For the seven soph doll nominees, Dana Goth, Maria Hart, Heidi Hilton, Amy Jacobson, Hey-Kyu Lee, Karen Storsteen, and Brynne Windle, that week was very memorable. The Soph Doll dance was the finale to the week. The nominees and their escorts awaited anxiously for the announcement of the winner, who was Dana Goth. As a result of the fund raising mixed with a bit of fun, sophomores succeeded in raising a large sum of money.

Howdy, I'm sorry you didn't make V-ball, and I'm glad I didn't go to. I'm not sure I didn't want to with Friedman, he embarrasses me somewhat. That deem't mean I won't go. If you need a 5th for V-ball and basket ball give me a ring. I'll see you this Summer most likely so I won't say bye.
(Good) bye 'till later
Eric Lubby

Mike -

Howsit going? Hey it hasn't hit me yet but were out of school! I'm really glad we were together this year, especially in shakespeare. I don't know if I could have handled it without you to break up the monotony. Your a good friend and I'm glad your my friend. Good Luck in the future and take it easy.

ORGANIZATIONS

Student government strong with Moe as ASB presiden

Organization, excitement, and fun characterized the school year thanks to our excellent leaders. Every day at lunch ASB President Maureen Halikis kept us entertained on the outdoor stage. This was a minor contribution compared to the other responsibilities of the ASB officers, such as planning sporting events, formals, Harlan Shoemaker; selling pies and pastries; and many more activities.

Don't think these things happened smoothly without fine preparation. The ASB officers met every Sunday at Mr.Kinney's house; and on Monday nights, the whole student assembly met. They worked hard in an effort to make good decisions throughout the year.

Senior Assemblyman Edie White commented, "Student Government was a lot of fun and the work everyone put in really payed off."

Music groups light up school activities

For less experienced players this year, Concert Band provided a learning experience. This year a very successful festival was held at Long Beach City College.

Wind Ensemble membership is determined by audition. They also performed in their annual festival.

The most advanced musical group is orchestra. Orchestra performed at school twice this year, at Christmas and Spring musicals. This year the highlight of their four festivals was one held at St. Miguel High School in San Diego.

Renaissance is another select group. They wear colorful costumes and sing music from the Renaissance period. The group performed at school concerts as well as off-campus engagements.

Palos Verdes Vocal Music Department welcomed a new director, Mark Landford. Both the students and the new director adjusted quickly and kept up the department's polished reputation for being one of the best. All the groups presented very successful concerts and various special performances.

Chorale performed at private parties, at the 2nd annual Jazz Festival in San Fransisco, and at several other music festivals. They also made a very successful tour of colleges in Northern California.

Concert choir made their annual visit to Disneyland and sang with groups from other schools in the Christmas Pagent. All the groups helped fill the year with enjoyable concerts.

Tridette Drill Team sweeps up sweepstakes

Palos Verdes High School's Tridette Drill Team swept up sweepstakes at every band review in which they competed. The Tridettes also received first place and Specialties Award at every parade and field show competition. In addition to attending many other competitions, such as Miss Drill Team USA, they also turned out several entertaining halftime shows.

Both the Drill Team and Banner Unit performed at the Penninsula Music Fair, the annual Disneyland Christmas parade, and the pre-game Christmas show at a Ram's game. Lots of hard work and practice helped make these presentations interesting.

As president Susie Wynne said "NHS was more of an honor society than a club." Juniors and seniors who have achieved academic recognition were members of the group. NHS met weekly to discuss the group's achievements and goals for the year. Tutoring students was their main activity. Any students who felt they needed help with their school work could obtain free tutoring from the NHS students.

Also an honor society was CSF. This club was for sophomores, juniors and seniors who had recieved high grades throughout the semester. The Dodgers honored the "A" students this year with free tickets to their games. Both CSF and NHS seniors wore special overlays on their gowns showing academic achievement at Graduation.

Trident newspaper staff makes headlines

The hardworking newspaper staff had another successful year producing the Trident. Although some articles were controversial, the editors tried for unbiased coverage of all school activities.

The editors corrected and cut. The reporters researched and wrote. The photographers observed and shot. All contributed to typesetting and paste-ups.

Boys' Varsity cross country k

Boys' Varsity Cross Country finished another successful season undefeated, with a record of 10-0. It won the Bay League title and ranked fifth in CIF. Competition. The season increased its record to three and a half years without a loss, and only two defeats in eight years. "I was very proud of the team," stated Coach Bob Latham.

Captains for the teams were Tim Downs and Diane Harrell, the first girl captain. Awards for the Varsity boys were given to Dave Hoff for Most Valuable Player, Tim Downs for Athlete-of-the-Year Nominee, and Tom Sage for Most Improved Runner of the team.

The team was a young team, so next year there will be a lot of returning runners. Captains for that team will be Graham Cumming, Dave Hoff, and Susan Kattlove.

Girls' cross country runs away with title

The Varsity Girls' Cross Country Team completed an undefeated season, and then capped it with their first CIF 4-A championship. This, after surmounting numerous financial difficulties, was a truly outstanding team.

Among the honor-laden runners were Diane Harrell; first girl co-captain, and Athlete-of-the-Year Nominee; and Julie Vogt, Most Inspirational Runner, who motivated the team throughout the year. Along with the rest of the team, they completed their finest season ever at PV.

WITH TOUGH BLOCKING Jim Mays receives the handoff and sweeps around end.

Varsity football had a great season with an overall record of 10-3. "We had to make many sacrifices and put in a lot of work and it paid off." said Coach Ken Russell.

"Before the season, we didn't know what kind of team we'd have, but wanted to win Bay League, and did," said Russell. In CIF, the Sea Kings went on to beat Long Beach Jordan and San Marcos before losing to undefeated Compton in the semi-finals.

The team voted for Clay Eisenbrand as MVP for the year. Eisenbrand and Pete Best received Most Valuable Offensive Players while Joe Upegui and Buck Shaw shared Most Valuable Defensive Players. Eisenbrand got Senior Athlete of the Year Nominee.

PV's Soph Football Team ended the year winning the Bay League Title with a League record of 5-0, with an overall record of 8-2. The Frosh team, meanwhile, had a disappointing season, finishing 0-6-2.

The Sophomore team had a well-balanced running and passing attack with a very aggressive defense. Their outstanding games, according to Pat Lindsay, were the wins over RH, 51-7, and North, 39-16. Overall, Quarterback Mike Hart was the team's outstanding performer.

The Freshman team, however, had problems getting it all together. A major setback occured midway through the season, when Quarterback Jeff Brown suffered a knee injury. The toughest game for the Frosh team was against Bishop Montgomery, where they lost a heartbreaker 21-20 in the final minutes. The team's MVP Award went to running back Bill Mashey.

PV won the first two rounds of CIF, easily defeating Los Amigos and Crescenta Valley. Palos Verdes then lost to Santa Ana in the quarterfinals.

Leadership throughout the season was provided by the two captains, Victoria Stein and Krissy Zaleski. Krissy Zaleski won the award for Ocean League MVP, as well as MVP of the team. Victoria Stein was awarded Most Inspirational, and Laurel Linstedt won the title of Most Improved.

Under the coaching of Kris Crawford, the Junior Varsity improved tremendously over the season. Captain and MVP Stacey Gleason led the team to an 8-4 record.

Sea Kings excel in outstanding season

Following an excellent season winning nineteen games and losing only six, the boys' basketball team played in one of its best seasons yet.

The team displayed its great talent by winning the Covina Tournament and ending the season with second place in Bay League. The team made it to CIF but was knocked out in competition later. The team's coach, John Mihaljevich, felt that the 1980 varsity basketball team was one of the better teams in school history.

Among the many talented players Jeff Acres and Mark Acres were selected for all-league players first team. Greg Fitzgibbons made the all-league players second team.

Team effort was the best thing that came out of the Junior Varsity's season. They finished fourth in Bay League with a 4-6 record and had a 7-12 overall record. Coach Joe Kelly said, "The team played to their ability near the end of the season. Their attitude and the way they never gave up helped to make the season profitable. Our co-MVP's were Leo Childs and sophomore Mike Hart. Steve Standring and team captain Bob Dinetz also played consistently."

Hustle provided the sophomore basketball team with a very good season. They finished second in Bay League with a 7-3 record and had a 15-8 overall record. The sophomores also won the Mira Costa Tournament and placed fourth in the Hawthorne Tournament. Key players were MVP Craig Donaldson, as well as Jim Porter, Kevin Spillane, and freshman Robbie Warren, according to Coach Ralph Lepore.

Much improvement occurred during the freshmen season. Finishing a disappointing fifth with a 2-8 Bay League record and a 5-14 overall record, Coach John Eberhard said, " The team played well in the second half of league. They worked hard and never gave up when it would have been easy to. Key players were MVP Scott Snell as well as James Regan (outside shooting), Stan Chao and Ed Donovan (rebounding), Eric Blatt (defense), and captain Tod Muilenburg (passing)."

Both the Girls' Varsity and JV Basketball teams suffered problems. Varsity finished 2-9 in the Bay League and 6-16 overall. JV ended the season at 1-14.

Varsity had problems getting it all together, although there were many returning players. In the last half of the season they played well, beating El Segundo and Miraleste while losing tough games to RH and North. All contributed; Kelly Martz and Kim Poppa were the high scorers for the season. Captain Kelly Martz was elected first team all Ocean League on the first ballot.

JV also suffered problems, a major one being that there was only one returning player. Said Coach Becky Fields, " This was a building and learning year for the JV team. It will pay off next year. " Two high scorers for the season were Valencia Lara and Ellie Mc Cormack.

Losing 2-1 in the fifth overtime of a tough match against West, PV ended its season in the third round of CIF bringing out a record crowd. The team came on with a strong finish in season to capture third place in Bay League and a seat in CIF. It won two crucial and miraculous games against both South and Rolling Hills. The season ended with a 17-5-2 record and 5-4-1 in league.

The team never lost its inspiration under the leadership of captains Chris Allaire and Rick Polacek. Allaire also gained the Best Defense title and Polacek received Senior Nominee and Most Valuable Player. Jeff Goodman was awarded Best Offense. Mark Porizky deservingly got Most Inspirational Player while Bill Clancy and Tom Bennett split the Most Improved Player award.

Porizky, Peter Steskal, and Steve Kane are the tri-captains for the next year's squad.

Frosh-Soph soccer finished fourth in Bay League. The team started out strong, winning five out of seven games and placing fourth in the South Invitational Tournament. Unfortunately the team lost six valuable players in an accidental violation of CIF rules. The team, although not as strong as it was in the beginning of the season, went on to beat South 2-1 in the last and most exciting game. the team finished the season 9-7-1 overall and 4-5-1 in the Bay League.

JV also finished fourth. Starting out very strong, the team placed second behind West in the South Tournament. It tied many games and finished its season 12-6-4 overall and 2-4-4 in Bay League.

Varsity soccer completed another season by winning the Bay League Championship with a 17-1-1 record. One of the highlights of their season was winning first place in the South Tournament during Christmas. Jody Fechner, Jennifer Leh, and Carin Jennings controlled the offense while Jenny Fechner and Janet Coffee handled the midfield, Krissy Zaleski stabilized the defense. Because of their combined efforts, Janet Coffey and Jody Fechner were awarded team co-MVPs. Krissy Zaleski was named Most Inspirational and Juliet Virtue was awarded Most Improved.

The Junior Varsity team, coached by Bill Owens, was also league champs with their 14-1-1 record. Captain Mitch Merlander led the team in scoring and was named MVP. Sheila Miller and Lisa Simpson were awarded a co-Most Improved award and Amy Hoyt was named Most Inspirational.

Varsity wrestlers take on all comers

PV's Varsity wrestling team had an outstanding year. Under the guidance of Coach Peter Fawaz, the team finished 12-2 in overall dual meet competition, the best season in over ten years of fierce competition. Leading the group, the four league champions were John Conners, Dave Faust, Jeff Kaye, and Allan Ward. Five varsity members reached the CIF finals: Tracy Carpenter, John Connors, Dan Hatano, Jeff Kaye, and Allan Ward.

Junior Varsity wrestling didn't finish as champions, but they did have a very good year, finishing 3rd place in league. Leading these young strivers were league champions Greg Alvarado, Andy Marckesano, and Steve Shouse.

EXCELLENT DIVING was a characteristic of Rob Nelson who is showing high hopes for the future.

Strong swimmers on the Varsity squad this year were Steve Martz, Warren Sussex, and Sean Judge. The team showed a great deal of talent in various events. Excellent times were made by Steve Martz in the 200 and 100 yard freestyle, Warren Sussex in the 50 and 100 yard free, Sean Judge in the 100 yard backstroke and Jay Duston in the butterfly. Sheldon Swenney performed well in the individual medley.

Rich Levine was the Varsity captain. He provided inspiration and spirit which helped give the team strength throughout the season.

A great asset to the swimming program was the Varsity diver, Rob Nelson. With tough training all year, he became known among the best divers in CIF. Coach Dan Porter comments, "This year our guys gained experience and had a lot of fun. I'm really pleased with their performance."

Girls' Junior Varsity fared extremly well in its season. Freshmen Megan Carroll, Brooke Greenburg, and Jenny Dollar were a few of the outstanding swimmers. Coach Jean Myhre was very pleased with the team and felt that it will be a very strong team next year. Stated Coach Myhre, "Many of the girls will form the nucleus of a very successful Varsity team in the years to come."

Lead by new coach Dan Porter, the Boys' Frosh-Soph team completed another successful season. It won the majority of its meets. Although the team was very inexperienced, Coach Porter felt that it improved greatly.

Excelling in long distance were Glenn Sigworth and Scott Young. Ed Hong and Chris Davis led the way in the short distance. Jim O'Brien, Dan Benner, and Terry Colen led in the field events.

Short distance Coach Dave Paulson said, "We have individuals who will place first, but we don't have the depth in having people second and third. We don't have enough athletes; I guess it was because of the financial cutback." Coaches Pat Costantini and Ken Russell coached field events, while Coach Bob Latham worked with hurdlers and long-distance runners.

PV's girls track team ran well throughout the season. Led by captains Suzy Fritz and Sharrie Tyler, the team finished well at all their meets. Senior Diane Harrell, junior Susan Kattlove and freshmen Kathy Engel were strong performers in the running events. Valerie McFarlane excelled in the long and high jumps.

Coach Latham summed up the team's ability when he said, "What we lacked in quantity we possessed in quality." Many of the team members will return next year, and another winning season is expected.

Under the leadership of coaches Bob Latham, Dave Paulson, Ken Russell, and Pat Costantini, the Freshmen and Sophomore track teams did very well. A few top freshmen sprinters were Frank Malone, Alan Mac Quoid, and Chris Potampa. Long distance runners were Todd Chambers, Roger Booth, and Greg Hill. There was also a very good sophomore combination with Ed Gorsuch, Pat Lindsay, and Kevin Spillane running with very good times in the 100, 220, and 440 yard dashes. Coach Bob Latham was quoted as saying, "What we lack in quantity we possess in quality, this is due to the fact that not many people want to pay to play."

Volleyball team sets the pace

Coached by Michael Jagd, the boys' volleyball team saw tough competition in their second year of existence. The varsity team played behind the setting of Cameron Hayase and Mike Ballsmith. Hitting power was supplied by Eric Larson, Bruce Korp, and Jeff Dedrick. Pat "Flash" Murray provided excellent defensive plays in the back court. The team played impressively at the Inglewood Tournament, making it to playoffs, but unfortunately lost to a tough Oceanview squad. Cameron Hayase and Eric Larson were awarded all-tournament honors, with Coach Jagd being awarded Coach of the tournament.

The junior varsity team was coached by Kris Crawford. Doug Swanson, Elliot Hayase, and Tim Lotina-Wyman led the team with their setting abilities. First year players Pete Neuman, Paul Copley, and Walt Brannon showed great hitting and blocking ability. Passing was a strong point for Steve Kaback and Aaron King. Bo Kaemerle led the team in defensive saves.

Beginning their season at 2-2, the F/S baseball team played with great enthusiasm. The team's hitting force was led by Scott Schuler, Andy Vuncanon, Jamie Kaye, and Kent Hill. F/S's pitching staff was well balanced with Glenn Russell, Jim Ramsey, John Hueth, and Scott Carrol. In pitcher Scott Carrol's first performance, he threw an one-hitter in a win over Mira Costa, 9-4. Outstanding defensive plays were made by Scott Schuler, John Hueth, Kent Hill, and Ron Cerka.

Ending the first half of their season 4-3, the JV baseball team performed well under a tough schedule. The team had a well rounded pitching staff with Bob Dinetz (3-0) and Mark Sampson (1-1). JV's hitting force was led by Doug Lewis, Jim Brown, Steve King, and Scott Smith. Catcher Steve Hainline was the outstanding defensive player, throwing out four runners, one attempting to steal, in their win over RH, 12-11.

Softball makes hits

Girls' softball saw much tougher competition this year as they played in the restructured 4A Bay League. Coached by Becky Fields, the team had six returning players and acquired lots of underclass talent. Returning pitcher Kim Poppa led the defense with Pam Linstedt, Jody Fechner, Brenda Daly, and Carin Jennings rounding out the infield. Kimmer Spurgeon returned as the stabilizing outfielder. Captains Jody Fechner and Sherry Ross provided leadership throughout the season.

Coached by John Mihalevich, the junior varsity team was led by captain Stacey Gleason. Defense was led by Jenny Fechner, Katherin Gustafson, Meg David, and Caryn Barab, behind the pitching of Ellie McCormack and Stacey Gleason. Katharin Gustafson led the offense with her hitting and base running abilities.

Girls' gymnastics was a strong yet young team. According to gymnastics Coach Porrazzo, the team was better than last year's and had potential for winning the league and advancing to the CIF playoffs.

Senior Nicki Hannes was most valuable all around. Other strong performers were Anne-marie Carretta, Jane Lawver, Julie Nicholson, and Cindy Owen.

Many of the team members will continue next year, and another strong finish is predicted.

Exhibiting fine skills and showmanship, the Palos Verdes High School golf team once again showed great promise in another successful season. Providing strong leadership, co-captains Scott Woosley and John Erickson led the team to many victories, including wins over the Torrance and Santa Monica teams.

Golf Coach Bob Wilton expressed that although the team had less experience than last year's team, they still had the potential to repeat the Bay League Championship title. Of the golfers new to the team, freshman Dave Babros has shown promise for an excellent future at PVHS for the coming years.

Losing to Mater Dei by two points, the basketball team finished second in CIF. "It was a basically rewarding season: they underwent great improvement and overcame great adversity," stated Coach John Mihaljevich. The Sea Kings finalized their season with a 20-7 record. Jeff Acres was named to first team all-CIF, and Mark Acres was named to second team all-CIF.

Undefeated in Bay League competition and in dual Meet competition, the boys' cross country squad remained reigning Bay League Champions. The team, a fairly young group, failed to place in CIF, but will be a very strong team in the years to come.

Champions of the CIF 4-A division, the girls' cross country squad completed a remarkable year. In only its third year of existence, the girls captured both the Bay League and the CIF crowns; the Bay League for the third year in a row. Diane Harrell provided leadership for the team throughout the season. Said Coach Bob Latham of his girls, "Going into the championship meet, they were underdogs, but they had enough confidence to win the championship."

"This was the best Palos Verdes team in fifteen years," stated Coach Ken Russell of his Bay League Champions. The Sea Kings won the their quarterfinal game against Long Beach Jordan and the semi-final game against San Marcos only to lose to Compton.

Going down in defeat 2-1 in a five-overtime cliffhanger, the PV boys' soccer team went on to a 17-4-2 record. The team's playoff hopes were dashed by the West Warriors, who went on to win the CIF title. Reaping the honors were Chris Allaire, all-League; and Rick Polacek, all-League and all-CIF.

A simple summation of Coach Pat Costantini's opinion of the girls' soccer season was, "I was very proud of them." The girls, ineligible to compete in CIF competition because of the limited number of girls' soccer teams, completed their season as Bay League Champions with a 17-1-1 record.

Finishing third in league, the girls' tennis team went on to gain a 13-6 record. The team coached by Ann Warfle placed the doubles team of Michelle Myers and Sherry Ross into the CIF competition.

Togetherness and desire allowed the girls' volleyball team to overcome bigger opponents and advance to the CIF quarterfinals. League MVP Crissy Zaleski and Victoria Stein provided excellent setting. Syrena Carlbom, Juliet virtue, and Laurel Linstedt provided a strong defense while Carrie Trimm, Jennifer Leh, Kim Pappa, and Pam Linstedt gave a near flawless offense. The team totaled a 12-0 season.

Varsity wrestling qualified five wrestlers for the CIF finals and finishing in the top ten in CIF team competition. Allan Ward finished fourth, Dan Hatano fifth, Tracy Carpenter sixth, John Connors seventh. Ward and Hatano qualified for the state tournament where they both finished in the top twelve.

This book was a labor of love given life by all who took part. Its production was often tedious, lasted until the most ungodly hours, and forced some extremely strained relations.

Contained within these pages is a small portion of our lives preserved indelibly for ages to come. This has been our feeble attempt at immortality and fame; forgive us for our shortcomings, but please do not damn us for our efforts. I'd like to thank my entire staff, and anyone who worked on this annual; you're all a part of my life I'd like to remember always.

Thank You,

Joan "JB" Wang

Rob,
Well, should I be dull about this and say that it was nice to have gotten to know you and I hope you have a nice summer!?! No, I don't think so. Carl's was really fun! You gave it a real unusual twist Maybe because your just twisted. You gave the word fuckwad a real meaning (remember when you called Mike that?) that was hilarious. Watchorn.
Judy was the ultimate racy but she asks about you all the time! She said that you "cracked her up!"
Anyhow Rob- I love you alot and I know this summer is going to be so fun. Your birthday is going to be excellent! For sure if we don't go to Tahoe now we will in August w/my parents. Oh your body! What?!? Oh what a bust. I'll stop now before I really get rowdy! I love you lots, & lots & LOTS!

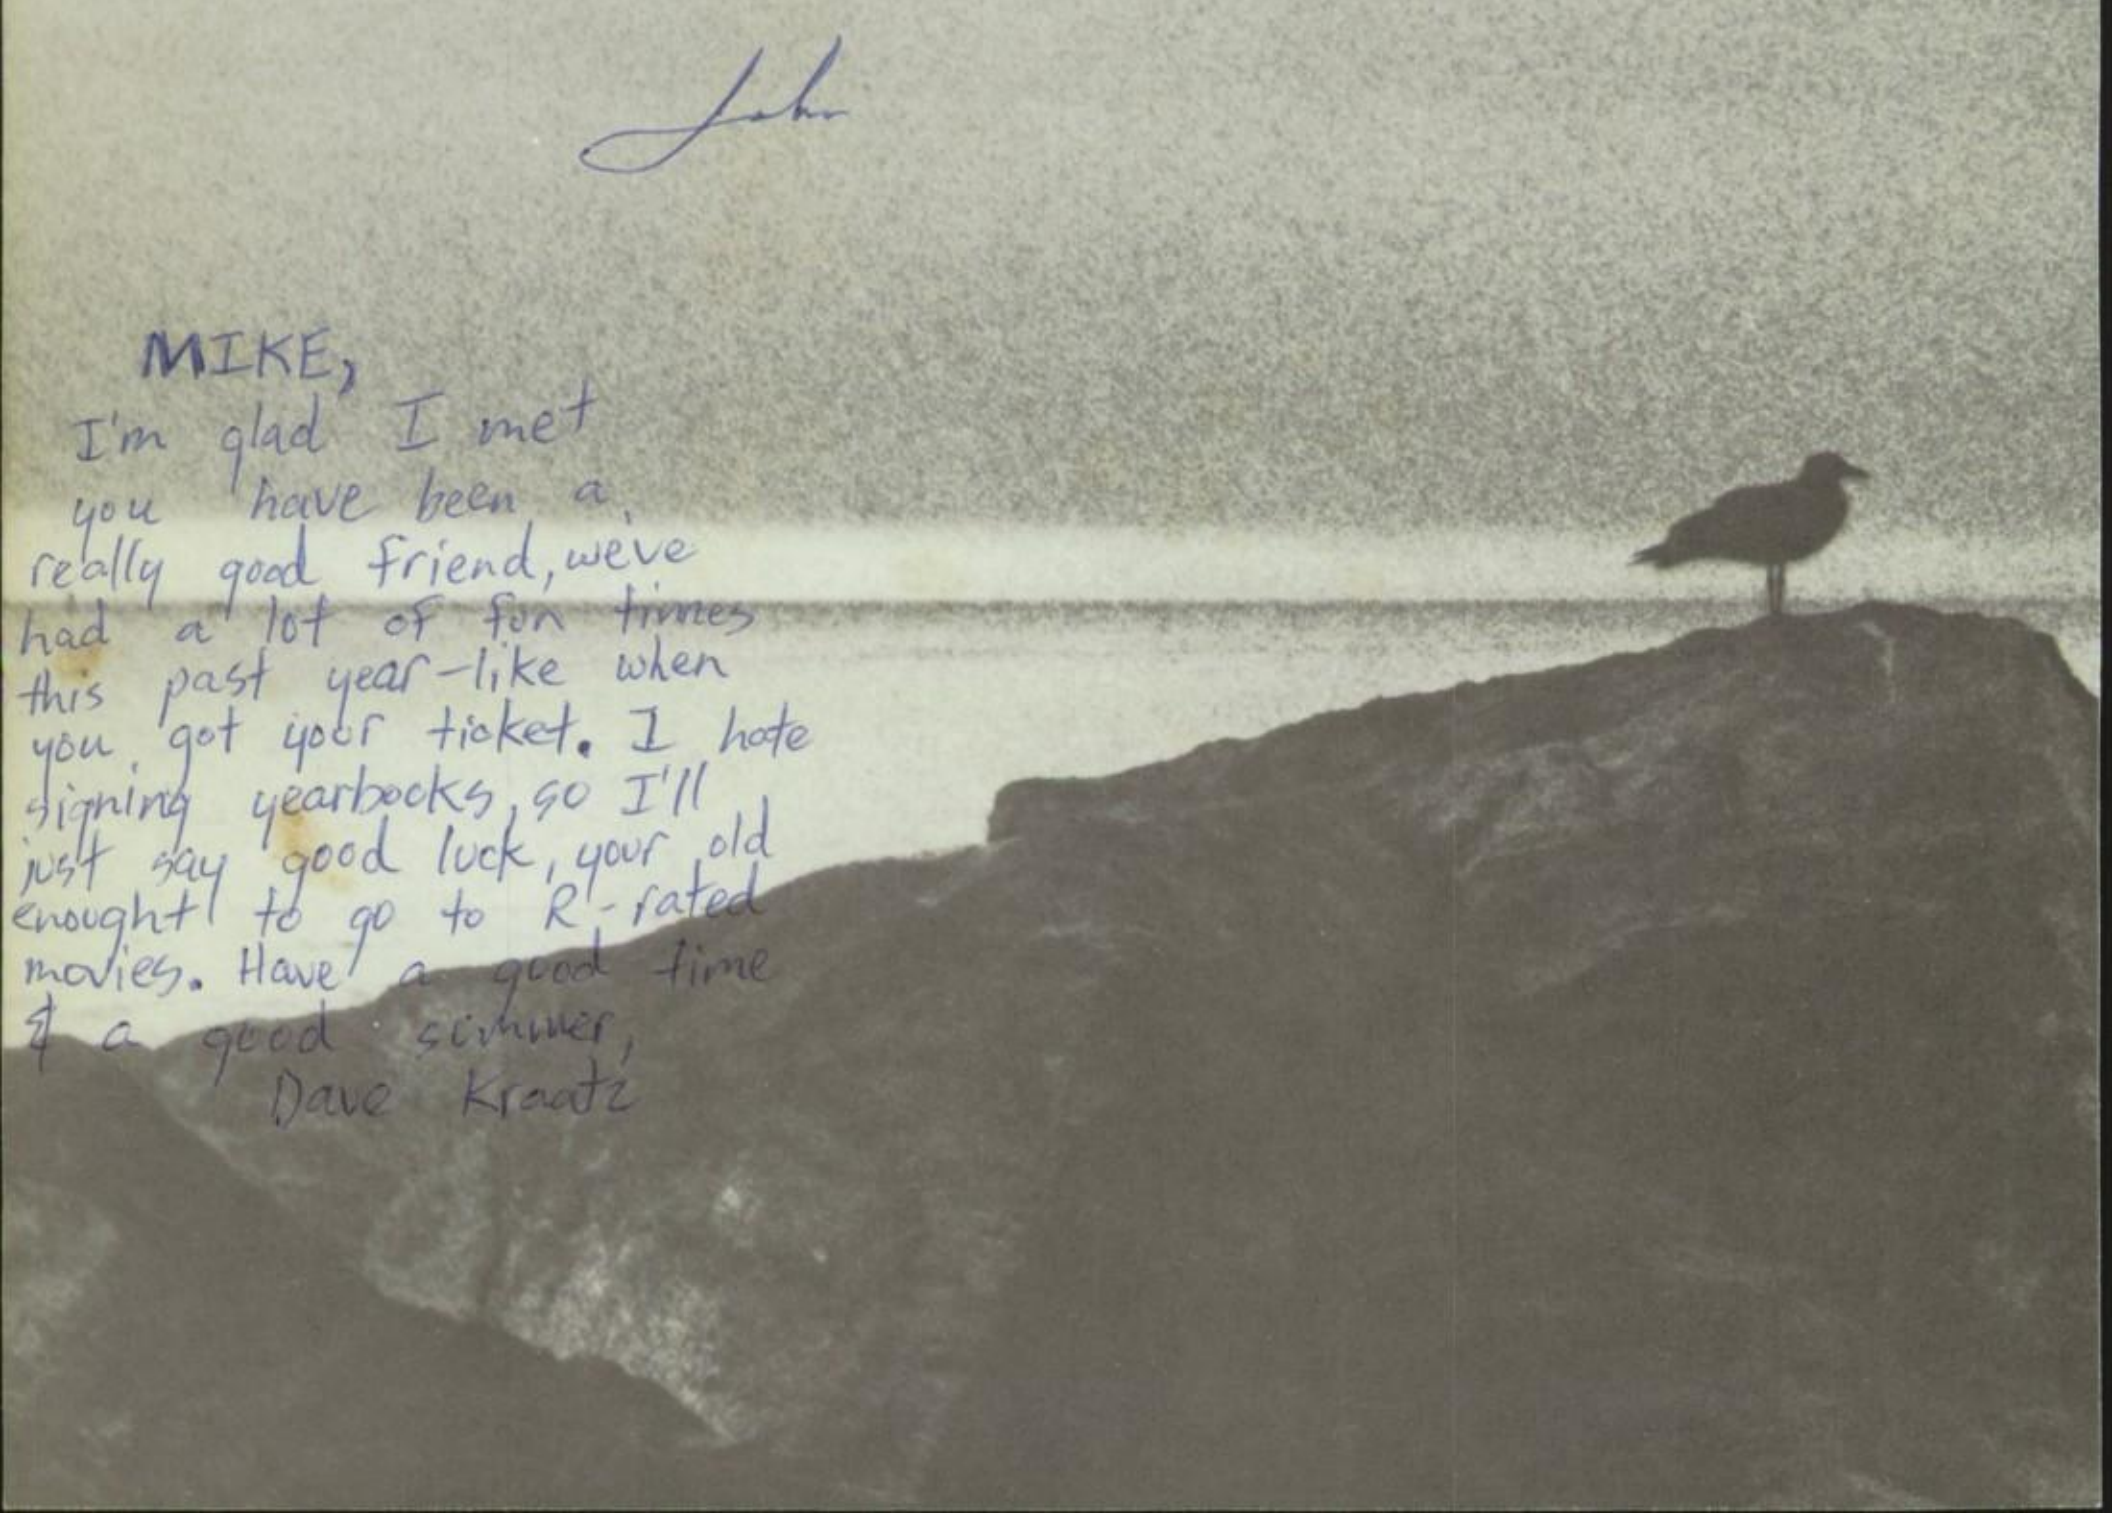
Love always,
Bonnie

Mike:

I am signing as far back in this book as I can. Because with Todd in the front, I tried to get as far away from him as I can. Grad night should be a blast, so you better show up. I know that you are totally bummed that Kirshberger will not be in your life any more, but who does like a "bald headed fart" looking over your shoulder. Show up at the big war next week. Always remember that The CARS rule over Devo at all times.

John

MIKE,
I'm glad I met you have been a really good friend, we've had a lot of fun times this past year - like when you got your ticket. I hate signing yearbooks, so I'll just say good luck, your old enought to go to R-rated movies. Have a good time & a good summer,
Dave Kraatz



Mike,

These past 4 years have been quite difficult at P.V. mainly because of school, but also because I didn't get to meet all that many people. I'm glad I got to know a guy with the same interests as me— — sports (volleyball), good times, and of course ⟶ women! Sorry the job at the Holiday Inn didn't turn out. Its kind of a lousy place to work anyway.

Hope to see you at the beach this summer because I won't be seeing you much after summer's over. Take it easy Mike and good luck in whatever you do. Friends Forever, Aloha,

Pat Murray
